

Internship Providers relevant to the Prime Minister's Scholarship for Latin American

Brazil

Brazilian Experience Brazilian Experience, or simply "BE", is an educational and tourism organization specialized in creating once-in-a-lifetime experiences for foreigners visiting Brazil, providing a safe environment with full support to meet their needs. Brazilian Experience head office is located in Curitiba. Our internship program aims to provide participants with an opportunity to gain international practical experience while simultaneously immersed in Brazilian culture and work environment. It's also a chance to learn Portuguese and develop a professional network in Brazil during a 2-4 month placement in a selected Brazilian company or organization.

Placements are available in several disciplines: Architecture, Business, Conflict Analysis, Economics, Engineering, Environmental Studies, Global Affairs, Information Technology (IT), Marketing, Social Work, Tourism and Hospitality, Urban Planning and more.

Campus Brasil Campus Brasil is an international education facilitator specialized in expanding experiential learning opportunities across the country

CI Experience Brazil – in Portuguese only.

Via Mundo The Internship Program in Brazil aims to offer international university students a meaningful training experience in a Brazilian organization/institution, in order to supplement and improve academic knowledge.

Chile

Contact Chile - ContactChile arranges interesting internships for high school graduates and college/university students, from 2 to 12 months in varied areas and all over Chile. They offer internship placements in the business sector (Marketing, Controlling etc.), social internships (in NGO's and governmental institutions), in the medical field (as nurse or midwife), in the tourism sector (directly in contact with the clients or in Destination Management etc.) and internships in creative and cultural institutions.

Mexico

Kukulcan Spanish Language School in Cuernavaca, Mexico. These innovative Spanish Language programs are available for students and professionals with specific career goals. Internships provide an opportunity to integrate a student's Spanish language skills with experiential learning in Mexico's industrial, agricultural, educational, commercial, and government sectors.

Argentina

Road2Argentina – Buenos Aires Argentina – Road2Argentina has partnered with more than 50 local and international companies and organisations in order to offer hands-on internships to university students and recent graduates in Buenos Aires, Argentina in the following fields: Advertising, Business, Education & Teaching, Entrepreneurship, Environment & Sustainability, Finance, Graphic Design, Journalism, Law, Marketing, Medicine & Healthcare, Non-profits & NGOs, Public Policy, Tourism, Urban Planning and Web Design and Development. Internships are also available in other areas on request. Interns are encouraged to practise and perfect their Spanish language skills at their internship placements, however placements are also available in bilingual English-speaking environments for those with limited knowledge of the language.

Connect-123 Internships in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Connect-123 creates tailor-made internships in Buenos Aires, Argentina in business, health care, human rights, education and many other fields. Business projects include conducting macro-economic research, reviewing business plans, working at venture capital firms, teaching basic economics within local communities, and developing export strategies for Buenos Aires-based entrepreneurs.

Mente Argentina – International Internship Program. Mente Argentina specialises in facilitating career-related and professional internships in Buenos Aires in business consulting, advertising/design, health care, communications, human rights, Medicine education, finance/accounting, journalism, and many other fields. Mente Argentina has a wealth of experience and knowledge in facilitating international internships that create equal value for both program participants and the Argentine organisations where they work.

Multiple countries

ELI Abroad - is a registered non-profit organization based in Denver, Colorado. ELI Abroad offers Internships in Latin America – including Argentina, Brazil, Chile, and Mexico. ELI works with a variety of private companies, NGOs, and government organisations. Interns can work in the fields of legal aid, human rights, engineering, IT, communications, microfinance, fashion, economic development, marketing, tourism, law, finance, and more.

The Intern Group is an international internship provider that places top candidates from around the world into a leading internship in Latin America, North America, Europe, Asia or Australia. Their Latin America program is based in Medellin, Colombia and provides an entire experience. Along with an internship, successful participants also receive housing, cultural and social events and excursions, professional development tools, training, a workshop, an HR assessment, post internship career coaching, visa assistance and more. The Intern Group has previously placed interns in leading companies across all career sectors and the Colombian government in Medellin.

Gooverseas.com a database of internships providers worldwide.

AIESEC - offers internships available in a wide variety of sectors and roles around the world. Discover thousands of opportunities ranging from startups to multinationals.

Agency and company lists will be expanded over time as appropriate organisations are identified.