

International education growth fund projects: March 2015 funding round

Institution	Project Description	ENZ Match Funding
Computer Power Plus, Avonmore Tertiary Institute and Alpha Educational Institute	Develop and deliver joint programmes of study to provide pathway programmes between partners in Christchurch and Sichuan, China	$48,000
University of Otago	Develop a short international school programme for US and European study abroad students	$40,000
University of Otago	Build Malaysian partnership to develop papers and programmes for study abroad students centred on unique access to the East Malaysian rainforest and coral reef.	$41,400
AUT University	Development of AUT alumni links via the International Whanau Council and marketing of study abroad programmes in Maori culture	$30,800
Palmerston North Boys & Girls' High School plus PN Intermediate Normal and College Street Normal Schools	Promoting a high quality pathway option from primary, intermediate to secondary known as the Manawatu Pathway for China.	$46,000
TEMA Limited and the Catholic Schools cluster	Establish a New Zealand Catholic secondary schools brand in Mexico for the recruitment of international students	$34,250
Otago Polytechnic	Pilot a golfing excellence programme with Chinese students	$17,550
Tai Poutini Polytechnic	Develop ecotourism and activity tourism short courses for the professional development market in China	$30,575
BIOZONE International Ltd.	Develop BIOZONE Academy: a digital platform for high school biology resources	$37,750
Kiwa Digital Ltd	Establishment of a new distribution partner to develop the North American market for digital language revitalisation resources	$50,000